
How can I determine if the alpaca is pregnant?

Posted by llama_mamma - 2007/09/14 14:57

How can I determine if the alpaca is pregnant?

=====

Re:How can I determine if the alpaca is pregnant?

Posted by olivia_terach - 2007/09/15 03:41

Ranchers use the "spit test" to determine pregnancy, but will often have a vet perform a sonogram to make sure. (A pregnant dam will most often spit at an approaching male to ward him off).

=====

Re:How can I determine if the alpaca is pregnant?

Posted by marcymarc - 2007/09/15 03:47

The dam is pregnant for 11½ to 12 months. Alpacas typically have trouble-free pregnancies. They are more likely to absorb a pregnancy than to have a miscarriage.

=====